VOCATIONAL AWARDS - BEST TEACHER AWARD 20th Sept. 2018

On September 20, 2018, Rotary Club of Madras Chenna Patna celebrated 'Teacher's Day' by giving away 'Best Teacher' awards for the year 2017-2018 to two language teachers.

G. Vijayaraghavan, Director of International Tamil Studies and Tamil University received the award for outstanding contribution to the Tamil Language. Mr. Vijayaraghavan is a multi-faceted person serving as a teacher, scholar, administrator and a guide to many PhD students of Tamil Literature. As an individual he had rendered great service to the language and continues to do so.

Annapurna Mohan is an English teacher from Panchayat Primary School Kandhadu, Tindivanam. She has passed the following degrees B.C.A., M.Sc.(Maths)., M.A (Eng)., B.Ed., M.B.A (HR) with flying colours. She became a teacher by chance and not by choice. When job offers came pouring in from the corporate world, Ms. Mohan decided to stay back in the village to give her best to the poor children, who were studying in the Panchayat school. As they say, rest is history.

Out of five candidates, the Rotary Club of Chenna Patna board selected these two candidates. Awards were given on the basis of representing dual languages, gender, urban and rural areas.

The award was presented by South Madras Constituency, Member of Parliament Dr. J.Jayavardhan. District Director of Vocational Services Ganesan participated as Guest of Honour and spoke about the significance of the Award. The function was presided over by Club President G. Prabhakar.
