RI Presidential Message

Shekhar Mehta
RI President 2021-22
September 2021

I am sure you are having an enriching experience as you Serve to Change Lives. One of the ways you can make the greatest change in a person's life is to help them learn to read. Literacy opens up the world to us. It makes us better informed about life in our own communities and opens vistas to other cultures. Reading and writing connects people and gives us another way to express our love for one another.

September is Basic Education and Literacy Month in Rotary. Enhancing literacy skills is critical in our pursuit of reducing poverty, improving health, and promoting peace. In fact, if all students in low-income countries left school with basic reading skills, it would result in a significant cut in global poverty rates.

Without education, illiterate children become illiterate adults. Today, 14 percent of the world's adult population — 762 million people — lack basic reading and writing skills. Two-thirds of that group are women. Literacy and numeracy skills are essential to obtaining better housing, health care, and jobs over a lifetime.

Especially for girls and women, literacy can be a life-or-death issue. If all girls completed their primary education, there would be far fewer maternal deaths. And a child is more likely to survive past age 5 if he or she is born to a mother who can read. Improving outcomes for more people worldwide is possible only if countries remove barriers to education for girls. The economic argument for doing so is clear: In some countries where schooling is geared toward boys, the cost of missed economic opportunity is more than $1 billion per year.

Empowering people through education is among the bold-est goals we have as Rotarians. We don't have to travel far from our homes to encounter those whose lives are being curtailed because they struggle with reading, rely on others to read for them, or cannot write anything more than their own name.

Starting this month, consider how your club can Serve to Change Lives through literacy: Support local organizations that offer free programs to support adult literacy or local language learning, or that provide teachers with professional development centered around reading and writing. Become literacy mentors, or work with an organization like the Global Partnership for Education to increase learning opportunities for children around the world. Have conversations with local schools and libraries to see how your club can support their existing programs or help create needed ones in your community.

In India, the TEACH program, a successful collaboration between the country's Rotary clubs and its government, has demonstrated how to scale up literacy efforts to reach millions of children. And at a time when schools across India were closed due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the program's e-learning component reached more than 100 million children through national television.

Literacy is the first step out of poverty. As Nobel laureate Malala Yousafzai has noted, "One child, one teacher, one book, and one pen can change the world."

A visit to Lotte, flyash brick factory

On August 21, about 23 of us braved stormy weather and rain and headed towards the Lotte factory at Thirumazhisai in five cars as part of a Vocational Service industrial visit. It was truly enjoyable. Thanks to Anns and Annetes for the active participation. It was a smooth check-in. Everyone got to know how chocopies were made in a totally-automated process. Initially, we were given a presentation on Lotte Group of Companies and then, on workflow automation.

We had fun donning protection gear. Everything was a novel experience. Appreciation to Vocational Service Director Rtn Anand for coordinating with the factory personnel and executing the whole visit in a seamless manner. Special thanks to Rtn Sathya for showing his flyash brick factory just opposite the Lotte unit and hosting a tasty lunch for everyone. We also enjoyed a demo of the fly-ash brick manufacturing process and had a great time.

Crochet training for underprivileged women

In a three-way tie-up, in which Mother India's Crochet Queens (MICQ), Manonmani Trust and Rotary Club of Madras Chennai Patna (RCMCP) came together to provide some job opportunities for underprivileged women from rural areas as part of vocational training.

RCMCP past president K. Vallekannu and Vocational Services Director Rtn N. Anand approached MICQ and Manonmani Trust simultaneously. Both Sudha Ramalingam of Manonmani Trust and Subashri Natarajan of MICQ were forthcoming in helping these beneficiaries.

While Ms. Subashri needed a batch of 20 people to start with, Ms. Sudha Ramalingam was more than willing to send about 40 school students from nearby villages. Manonmani Trust is located near Periyapalayam in Thiruvallur District, about 40 kms from Chennai.

"Most of the women here are engaged in plucking jasmine flowers during the day time. So, I gathered school children for the first batch. When I informed them about the crochet session, they joined the programme immediately," she said.

On July 30, three volunteers from MICQ visited the Trust along with RCMCP members and provided hands-on training for almost three hours. Later, the training was held through a virtual platform.

Ms. Subashri explained about her institution and how it had enabled people from all walks of life to earn extra income. MICQ supplied sweaters, fingerless gloves and caps to jawans.

The success of this programme has made Ms. Sudha to teach other courses tailoring and cake-baking to these underprivileged women. RCMCP President Senthan Amuthan said that he is always willing to help them.

Your Honor! Ankit is a 'Judge'

Annette Ankit, son of Secretary Rtn K. Sathyanarayanan, has gained admission in NMIMS, Mumbai, one of the leading institutions in the country. In a chat with first lady Vanitha Amuthan, he talks about his future plans.

Tell us about yourself?

I'm a 17-year-old extrovert, who loves playing sports and listening to music. I've spent most of my time in school participating in Model UNs (MUN) debates and cultural events for my school. I believe that this is my main strength and one of the reasons I wanted to pursue law. I will be starting my law education at Narsee Monjee Institute of Management Studies (NMIMS), Mumbai in September this year. I have chaired and judged many MUN debates and in the over 40 MUNs debates, either I have won an award or reached the semifinals. I also love learning about personal finance and investing, be it from reading books or listening to podcasts.

What has been your greatest achievement so far? Any learning from it?

After winning the first ever MUN award at Oxford University, I received personal invites from eight different countries to participate. I have also shared my experience with Chinmaya School students. My school (Lady Andal) had a rule that each student should participate only thrice in any competition so that everyone gets equal opportunities. Due to this rule, I lost an opportunity to participate in a MUN. Despite missing the first day session, I was asked by DAV School to take part and they sponsored me. I won an award. My greatest achievement was my win at Harvard Model Congress Asia 2018, in Hong Kong, where I won the Honorable Mention award. Here, I came across a lot of excellent debaters of all ages, academic levels and nationalities. I learnt that I need to keep polishing my skills and improving if I want to keep winning.

What is the best-kept secret about you?

I play video games on my PS4 but it is not just for enjoyment. I have traveled and participated in tournaments with international competitors and have won prize money amounting to a lakh of rupees.

Where do you see yourself in five years?

Well, in 5 years, I'd just be completing my law school journey. I wish to have a strong profile for Masters and intend to start a law firm of my own somewhere down the line.

What's your favorite movie?

Any movie which comes under the Fast and Furious banner, especially part 1 to 5 with Paul Walker who is my favorite actor.

Who is your role model and why?

My role model is Warren Buffett as he has proved that with hard work and patience, you can accomplish anything you set your mind to.

What do you enjoy doing for fun?

Whenever I have free time, I either play or watch a sport and I'm a huge fan of almost all mainstream sports from cricket and football to NFL and hockey.

Prithivirajan, a fun-loving guy

Annette Ka. Prithivirajan is the first person from a family of master weavers of three generations to have crossed the proverbial seven seas to pursue his Masters in Computer Science in the U.S. His father Rtn Karthikeyan is a textile exporter now. As a fun loving guy, Prithivirajan talks to Rtn K.N. Ramanathan in this interview.

What defines Prithivirajan?

I define myself as a person who is ambivert, a good listener, and a bit of a happy-go-funny guy.

What were you pursuing in the U.S. and how has college life there been different from India?

I recently graduated with a Master's in Computer Science. College life there is completely different from what I experienced in my undergrad in Chennai. Starting from choice of courses, reduced class timings to working part time and enjoying fun-filled weekends. But the worst part is I spent most of the time in my room because of CoViD-19.

What makes you proud of your Indian identity and what has impressed you the most about the U.S.?

I feel a lot good and proud when some of the local Americans say that "Indians are generally talented and hardworking". Also, they like our Indian food a lot. The thing which impressed me the most in the U.S. is their organized way of living, and good time maintenance. I never experienced a professor taking class beyond the allotted time.

What is your definition of having fun? Give a few examples of some fun activities.

For me the definition of fun is a thing which should be forever in whatever we are doing.

How important is community service to you? How can youth like you be more involved in the Rotary movement?

Community service is really important because I always feel it is necessary that everyone gives something back to the community which gave them everything. Also it helps us in networking and to feel free from the daily routine work. Youth like me are always interested in community service, but they can be more involved by having proper time management (which we don't follow), so that there is enough time for community service. Also, I wish there is more awareness among youth about communities such as Chenna Patna and the work which we are doing so that it will motivate more youth to join the service.

If you could time travel, what would you like to do?

If there is an opportunity for time travel, I would like to change a lot. But right now, I feel like naah...let it be the same. Let's change the future. But if it really exists, I wish I could travel to my childhood and see what I was doing then.

Incredible Usha Surendra

Peels of laughter, giggles and smiles are all that I can think of when it's Usha Surendra. Talking to her for the story was like walking down memory lane for me. Usha is a simple, light-hearted soul with a hearty laughter and a little mischief! Usha always ensured we were all very comfortable and won our hearts during polio plus 'potluck' times. That was not just for one or two years but for 20 years, and those times are still etched in mind and memory. We all had access to her kitchen for two days a year and Usha would welcome us all warm heartedly where we would have 'Anns time' together when the Rotarians were off to the polio booths.

Usha is a thorough 'Madras girl' who studied in Bains School, Kilpauk and is the only girl child of her family. All her other four siblings are boys.

When the wedding proposal with Suri came up, Usha accepted it though she had not personally met him. They met only a day prior to their wedding. Unbelievable but true!

Married at 17 to Rtn Surendra who was just 20, Usha devoted herself completely to the family taking care of Uday and Dhana - the children

(adults now of course) have always been part of Chenna Patna events and are very dear to us all.

Usha's trademark smile never faded even during challenging times in life. They were handled by her with responsibility and utmost courage - Usha very religiously took care of her in-laws when Rtn. Suri was busy with his textile business and travel connected to his work.

Usha continues to be the pivot in the family, dedicating herself totally to her grandchildren. The kids simply dote on her and that's how Usha is to everyone.

Those of us who need a kind word or pep talk, we could actually lift the phone and talk to either of the couple and I guarantee, we would feel totally energized. With her lighthearted banter and warmth, Usha is truly the 'fellowship queen forever' of Madras Chenna Patna!

Wishing Usha good health, happiness and contentment in the years to come!!

Superwoman Sukanya

A gem of Madras Chenna Patna, Sukanya Rajasriram makes the club special just by being in it. To her, Chenna Patna is home and Pattinathars her family. Her friendliness and warmth engulfs many clubs. She believes if you have the ability to change someone's perspective or emotions, never waste that talent.

A self-made woman after her graduation in chemistry at Villupuram Government Arts College, she worked in HSBC, Insurance and Advertising. Her marriage to Rajasriram brought out the entrepreneur in her. She shouldered his business 'Technocrat Engineers,' dealing with air conditioners and monarch of the field today. Her journey though was not cool. She emerged stronger from things that were meant to break her.

Her most defining moments were getting selected for the Goldman Sachs 10k woman entrepreneur programme by the Indian School of Business, Hyderabad. An avid knowledge seeker, she finished her MBA at Welingkar School of Management, Mumbai recently. Currently, she is doing Neuro Linguistic Programming which, she believes, has opened a new world to her.
