Vivacious Valle - A lustrous diamond on the Silver Crown!

"The girl looks like Simran and the boy looks like Vijay" - this was the comment that did the rounds when Valle and Dr. Kana got engaged! This 'made for each other' couple have a matrimony story to tell! A chance meeting of the families in a friend's place marked the beginning of a beautiful journey in life! Born in Madurai to Mr. Chockalingam and Mrs. Uma, Valle is an Engineering graduate-turned-diamond entrepreneur who believes in a 'win win' situation for all, be it her clients, friends or family!

A firm believer of 'what goes around comes around' Valle has several 'facets' like the diamonds she deals with, quite unknown to many! She is simple yet strong; she is someone who cannot be cowed down easily! Valle with her family and friends has successfully renovated the Kailasanathar Kamakshi Amman Kovil in Paadhiri in Chengelpet District with utmost devotion and that calls for real commitment coupled with divinity!

Dr. Kana Kulandaivel, her better half practises Dental Implantology post his specialisation in the subject from Germany. Dr. Kana is also a Builder. Annette Anusha, an 8th standard student of Shraddha's Children Academy is a mirror image of her mother. Her interests are in cosmetics, she can tell you the good and bad of each brand or product just by hearing the name, from the tip of her fingers!

The Secretary of the club the previous year, Valle has a stellar role to perform this year! She has to steer the club through the 25th year and also be an enterprising leader!! With a cool head and a sincere effort she is sure to pull it off wonderfully well with the support of the Pattinathar family!
