When God's Came to Bless Us

We have been keeping the Golu (dancing dolls) for Navaratri every year. It's a joint effort by us with major contributions coming from my wife Meera, writes Rtn. Pattabiraman. Every year we add at least two new dolls.

The grand children, when present, add more to the colour and the fun to this unique occasion. Normally, our Golu consists of FIVE steps.

Some of the dolls are very very old passed on to us by our parents and grandparents, which we preserve. Few were repainted two years back. This year, we added Lord Panduranga and Ruckmini dolls. Navaratri also helps in socialising with others, especially in set ups like apartments.

Apart from giving the Thambulam to the ladies, we enjoy giving small gifts to the tiny-tots. Golu also used to be a cultural platform for young aspirants in Carnatic music to train and gain confidence. Now this is limited to the family members.

Rtn. Rajshekhar and Ann. Priya Rajshekhar, Rtn. Saptagiri and Ann. Anandhi and Rtn. Manikandan have been celebrating Navaratri by keeping Golu at their respective places.

President Suryabaskar, Secretary Anand, PP Muthiah, Joint Treasurer Admin Vallekannu and Rtn. Rau and Ann. Rama paid a visit.
